

The Bad and the Positive of COVID-19

DCHS Class of 2020

Bad things that have happened because of COVID 19	Positive things that have happened because of COVID 19:
Prom is postponed.	I am healthy.
Graduation is postponed.	I can still see my teachers - online
Can't hang out with my friends	I can help my parents more.
Unable to leave my house	We are safe.
Track season is canceled.	We are still getting an education.
Golf season is canceled.	We will have graduation and prom
I can't hug people.	I have time to do things during the day.
I have to stand 6 feet away from people.	I am getting to sleep in.
We can't eat in a restaurant.	More time with my family
I can't see my boyfriend.	Time to focus on myself
I don't get to see the people I love.	Try new hobbies
People are dying.	Get organized
School is online.	Forced to be creative
More stress	Cereal Night every Tuesday
Businesses are failing.	I get to play Super Mario with my brother and sister
People are lonely.	I finally have free time
People ignore government precautions and regulations causing more sickness.	My mom isn't running all over the place for me.
I won't get a chance to break a school record.	Pollution levels are down
My inbox is cluttered with unwanted emails.	Gas prices are down
Not enough medical supplies	More time with family
Seniors won't get some of our "lasts"	More time outside
No art show	More sleep
No toilet paper	Being more independent
No school interaction	I can work more
Not enough PPE	I get to spend time with my mom
Shortage of hospital beds	I am learning how to cook
Confused about college and what is going to happen	I am learning how to clean
I shop when I'm bored, and I'm always bored	I get to be a kid
School is now way more overwhelming	The skies and waters are clearing up
I can't see my teachers	Eating dinner together every night
Senior year cut short, which isn't fair	Getting to have school – even if it's online
I'm on house arrest – except for work	Time to read
I eat too much	I can wake up whenever

Health care workers can't go home to family once exposed	I can wear comfy clothes all the time
I can't visit my grandparents	I don't have to do my makeup or hair
I can't see my friends every day	Summer starts early
Can't pain my senior block	Found appreciation for simple things
People losing jobs	Excuse to stock up on soda pop
Businesses shut down/people without work	I ate 240 pizza rolls in two days.
Stock market crashing	I get to stay home
Loneliness	Get to do art all the time
No reason to dress up	I get to see my dogs all day
No normal routine	More time to workout
People doing Yolos on Snapchat	I can help more on the farm
I am almost out of data on my phone	My hands are always sanitized
Hours at work have been cut	It can humble a person
Ruined sleep schedule	Ozone is healthy
I watch too much Youtube, Netflix, and Disney Plus	Time to focus on myself
I don't get to participate in my first play	We are forced to slow down
No motivation to do anything	There is time now to smell the roses.
Missing school	I see my dad more
No awards assembly	Time to declutter my room
